

TRUST in JUSTICE

PANEL PRESENTATION:

Trust in Criminal Justice

February 8th, 2007, 7:30 – 9:00 pm

Room 105, Dalhousie Law School

MODERATOR: BRUCE ARCHIBALD, Q.C.

Professor of Criminal Law, Dalhousie University, and current member of the Nova Scotia Restorative Justice Programme Management Committee.

PARTICIPANTS:

ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER IAN ATKINS

Commanding Officer of the RCMP in Nova Scotia

A/Comm. Atkins is responsible for the delivery of the RCMP's federal, provincial and municipal law enforcement services in Nova Scotia.

THE HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE DAVID WATT

Judge of the Superior Court of Justice of Ontario

Mr. Justice Watt is Leader of the Toronto Homicide and Long Trial Team, which presides over all homicide and other complex criminal cases heard in Toronto. Author of "Ontario Specimen Jury Instructions (Criminal)."

DUNCAN R. BEVERIDGE, Q.C.

In private practice since 1984 focusing on litigation almost exclusively in the area of criminal law.

Duncan Beveridge is a past President of the Nova Scotia Criminal Lawyers' Association, and former Chair of the Canadian Bar Association, Nova Scotia Criminal Justice Section.

Presented by:

Canadian Centre for
Ethics in Public Affairs

DALHOUSIE UNIVERSITY
Inspiring Minds

NOVA SCOTIA
BARRISTERS' SOCIETY

For more information, contact:
CCEPA at 428-4731 or www.ccepa.ca

CCEPA is a joint initiative of:

