

JUST IN TIME HEALTHY RESEARCH?

The Implications of Pharmaceutical Industry Influence from the Laboratory to the Marketplace.

A timely debate by a diverse panel of experts addressing the risks and benefits of industry influence in Canadian health research.

Francoise Baylis
Novel Tech Ethics and Dalhousie
University Department of Bioethics

Jocelyn Downie
Dalhousie University Faculties
of Law and Medicine

Monday, February 15th, 7pm - 9pm
Alumni Hall,
University of King's College
FREE ADMISSION

For more info: www.ccepa.ca

Don Weaver
Dalhousie Department of Chemistry and School of Biomedical Engineering

Moderator:
Costas Halavrezos
Maritime Noon Host
CBC Radio One

Chris MacDonald
Saint Mary's University
Department of Philosophy

Canadian Centre for Ethics in Public Affairs

situating
science

SCIENCE IN HUMAN CONTEXT

Novel Tech Ethics

CCEPA is a joint initiative of:

One University. One World. Yours.